

Name/Title: Hip-Hop Warm Up Dance

Prerequisites: Warm up is taught in chunks. Students need to be familiar with names of traditional exercises: mountain climber, coffee grinder, seat spin, crab kick, mule kick, tripod.

Suggested Grade Level: 3-5

Materials Needed: none

Recommended music: "Who Let the Dogs Out" or other engaging (4 beat to measure) song

Beginning dance formation: Personal space (enough room to safely perform handstand and coffee grinder)

Description of Idea

Teach dance in 3 chunks of 8 counts without music:

Chunk #1-8 counts of each movement:

- mountain climber: (push up position, switch legs forward and back
- coffee grinder: right arm sideways support, walk in circle 8 counts, switch to left arm and repeat other direction
- seat spin: spin on seat 8 counts CCW, and 8 counts clockwise

Chunk #2- 8 counts each movement:

- crab kick: crab walk position, kick alternating legs 8 times
- mule kick: flip over from crab walk position and kick legs into air using hand support (students can try to balance or walk in a hand stand.

Chunk #3 8 counts each movement:

- 1 leg hop: stand up, hold bent leg behind back and hop in circle 8 counts. Change leg, hold, and repeat other direction
- Shoulder shimmy: shake shoulders forward and back
- improvise robotic movements
- tripod balance: end in a tripod balance, see which student can hold the balance until the music ends.

Variations:

Let students teach their own hip-hop moves in chunk #3.

Time the length of each exercise to phrase changes in the music.
