Course Dates: Ongoing

Cost: $49.00

Credit: 5 hours of professional development (No grad credit or CEU's available)

Instructor: Nathan Horne, PE Teacher, Meadowridge School, British Columbia, Canada,

Assignments:

- Read and explore on how to create a game graphic.
- Learn how to create a game animation and voice overs for animations.
- Share your game animation

Who Should Take: K-12 physical education teachers.

Course Purpose/Description: This self-paced online course is designed for physical educators and coaches who wish to learn how to create simple game animations to support student learning in their physical education or sport programs. Game animations can help you present new games, or tactical concepts to your students visually in a highly engaging way. Using the power of Keynote for Mac you will design custom graphics, animate and explore ways to share and present your new animations with students.

Benefits:

- Flexibility - Complete assignments at your own pace and schedule
- Grade free - Complete your assignments, get feedback from instructor and platform.

What you will get out of the course:

- 5 hours of Professional Development (check with your principal or PD Dept.)
- Certificate of completion
- You will have access to a toolkit of pre-made players, equipment and playing spaces to speed up your creation of game animations.

What you need to take the course:

- Access to the Internet using a computer and/or tablet and ability to view videos, PDF and Microsoft Word documents.
- Mac computer/laptop and Keynote for Mac presentation software
