

PE Central Professional Development – Online Courses

<http://ssww.teachable.com>

Course Name: My Students Don't Look Like Me: Culturally Relevant PE

Course Dates: Ongoing

Cost: $59.00 Credit: 4 PD hours

Instructor: Sue Scheppele, Elementary PE Teacher, Wharton PK-8 Dual Language IB World School, Houston, TX

Assignments:

- Viewing and reacting to a video about culturally relevant PE.
- Read articles about culturally relevant physical education
- Write/Revise a current lesson plan making it more culturally relevant

Who Should Take: K-12 PE Teachers.

Course Description: Culturally relevant physical education is deeper than acknowledging that students are diverse. Rather, it brings students diverse experiences and backgrounds into their learning experiences to make them more engaging and meaningful. Culturally relevant instruction also builds a foundation for educators to understand equity, diversity and inclusion. It helps them understand the need for instruction that is accessible for all students. It also celebrates the uniqueness that each student brings to their learning experience. This course will help teachers make instruction more meaningful for ALL learners. The goal is for teachers to be mindful of the role of culture in student learning and information processing.

Benefits:

- Flexibility - Complete assignments at your own pace and schedule
- Feedback - Our instructor will review all of your assignments
- Grade free - Complete your assignments and wait for instructor feedback

What you will get out of the course:

- 4 hours of Professional Development
- Certificate of completion

What you need to take the course:

- You will need a computer and/or tablet, Microsoft Word and PowerPoint. You will also need a valid email address to contact the instructor or turn in materials.

To Learn More Contact Mark Manross at PE Central

678-764-2536 (cell)

Enroll: <http://ssww.teachable.com> Email: ecourses@pecentral.org