Course Dates: Ongoing

Cost: $69.00

Credit: 8 hours of professional development (No grad credit or CEU's available)

Instructor: Bryan Capes, Elementary PE Teacher, Puckett's Mill Elementary, GA

Assignments:

- Read information about the proper steps to use to creating a great game for PE
- Post discussion board answers to questions based on readings.
- Create your own game to be reviewed by instructor

Who Should Take: Elementary physical education teachers.

Course Purpose/Description: The course is designed to help teachers understand how to create new physical education games that meet the needs of students, teachers and administrators in regard to the growing expectations in our field. My goal is to inspire physical educators to be creative and implement this system in their classrooms so that students will be able to master the skills necessary to enjoy physical activities and become healthy and active for a lifetime. The course will cover each of these areas so that teachers will be comfortable creating their own games!
