Course Purpose/Description: This eight week intensive course is designed for K-12 teachers who desire to learn how to use technology in the physical education classroom to benefit both the teacher and the students. This course will help educators to better meet modern standards and objectives using a variety of technologies to assist in understanding content, acquiring new pedagogy methods, developing assessment strategies, and enhancing communication avenues. Through online activities, discussions, and demonstrations, participants will gain the knowledge, skills, and confidence needed to incorporate technology in the physical education curriculum.

Benefits:

- Flexibility - Complete assignments at your own pace during the week
- Earn college graduate credit from the comfort of your own home
- Put credit towards your teacher licensure renewal (check with PD Coordinator)
- Affordability – Total for entire course including text and optional credits from Adams State Univ. will be under $600

What you will get out of the course:

* Certificate of Completion and optional 3 graduate credits are available from Adams State University. ASU admission is not required, just register and pay for credit with Web link provided during course. We suggest paying for this during the course!

What you need to take the course:

- A smart phone or a tablet. Access to the Internet using a computer/tablet and ability to view videos, PDF and Microsoft Word and PowerPoint documents. You will not need access to any students or children to complete the course.
