

PE Central Presenter Profile
Susan Flynn

Location: College of Charleston, Charleston, SC

Education: B.S. Bridgewater State College, MA

M.A. University of South Florida, FL

Special Education Certificate, Georgetown University, DC.

Teaching Experience: 30+ years, elementary physical education, adapted physical education, middle school special education and university level.

Susan provides professional development for school districts throughout the United States and internationally. She has been invited to present at many state physical education conferences and workshops (AI, CO, FL, GA, IL, IN, IO, KY, LA, MA, OH, VA, WV). In addition to presenting at the National SHAPE America Convention and District conventions numerous times, she presents at national and state early childhood conferences. Susan also presents on Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) through her National Science Foundation grant- TECHFIT-connecting coding, engineering and fitness.

Professional Development provided in the following areas:

- Move 2 Learn: Integration of ELA and Math with Physical Literacy
- K-12 Developmental Appropriate Practices in Physical Education.
- Brain Blasts and Action Based Learning for the classroom educator
- Physical Literacy for Early Childhood
- Adapted Physical Education and Sensory Motor
- Creative Dance Pre-K-5
- Dance for the Physical Education Curriculum K-12
- Physical Best and Fitness Education
- Brain Blasts and Action Based Learning for the classroom educator
- Technology in Physical Education
- TPSR- Teaching Personal and Social Responsibility in physical education
- Certified Presidential Youth Fitness Instructor (PYFP); Physical Activity Leader (PAL) and Physical Best Instructor.